IMPORTANT INFORMATION

How to Vote the Initiative and Referendum Ballot.

At the coming general election the citizens of Perrysburg will have for their consideration upon which to vote two special ballots, one ballot is known as "The Initiative" and the other ballot is known as "The Referendum." The first or initiative permits the electors to vote upon the question as to whether the sidewalks in Perrysburg shall hereafter be located at a distance of four feet from the lot line. This is general in its application and applies to all the walks hereafter laid in the village. The referendum permits the electors to vote upon the legislation seeking to grant Dr. Bowers the right to place his sidewalk fourteen feet distant from his lot line. It is important that the voters may not become confused over these two ballots or what each seeks and in order that our citizens may know exactly the provisions of the statute relating to this matter we have decided to copy the sections of the statute which apply both to the initiative and referendum and by reference to that each voter ought to be able to understand clearly the difference between the initiative and referendum, and if any doubt still exists in the minds of the voters in this matter we would be glad to be favored with any inquiry relating thereto promising to give any information within our power in our succeeding issue prior to the election.

Sec. 4227-1. Ordinances and other measures may be proposed by initiative petition. Such initiative petition must contain the signatures of not less than ten percentum of the electors of such municipal corporation.

When there shall have been filed with the village clerk, a petition signed by the aforesaid required number of electors proposing an ordinance or other measure, said village clerk shall, after ten days, certify the petition to the board of deputy state supervisors of elections of the county wherein such municipality is located. Said board shall submit such proposed ordinance for the approval or rejection of the electors of such municipal corporation at the next succeeding regular or general election, occurring subsequent to forty days after the filing of such initiative petition.

Sec. 4227-2. Any ordinance, passed by the council of any municipal corporation shall be subject to the referendum except as hereinafter provided. No ordinance or other measure shall go into effect until thirty days after it shall have been filed with the mayor of a city or passed by the council in a village, except as hereinafter provided.

When a petition signed by ten percent of the electors of any municipal corporation shall have been filed with the village clerk, within thirty days after any ordinance, or other measure shall have been filed with the mayor, or passed by the council of a village, ordering that such ordinance or measure be submitted to the electors of such municipal corporation for their approval or rejection, such village

WON ANOTHER GAME

Perrysburg Team Defeated the Naval Reserves of Toledo.

Perrysburg football team added another victory to their list Sunday afternoon by defeating the fast Naval Reserves of Toledo, 33 to 0.

The visitors put up a fast, clean game, but the attack of the locals was too great for the Reserves' scoring machine.

Perrysburg made their gains on wide end runs by Baldy Fuller and C. Muir, and line punching by Weiland and Sarver.

The game was poorly attended by the local fans, and good attendance will be the only means of keeping the team here. This is the best team Perrysburg has had in years, so why not support this club and keep them playing at home?

Don't forget next Sunday at 2:30 sharp.

MALINTA VS. PERRYSBURG

An Interesting Game Promised for Next Sunday.

Next Sunday Malinta, Ohio, will be here to give battle with the Perrysburg eleven. This will be a good game to witness as both teams are evenly matched. Malinta has always defeated Perrysburg in former years. And the locals will work hard for a victory. Malinta held the Glenwoods to a low score last Sunday.

A large turnout should be on hand and root for the home team to win. Game called 2:30 sharp.

Referee—F. Fuller. Head line-man—H. Harper. Timekeeper—A. C. Fuller.

Arrested in Perrysburg.

One day last week two men drove into Perrysburg from Bowling Green, each one congratulating himself upon having the other for a friend. Shortly after arriving in town, one of the pair discovered that his "friend" had relieved him of a part of his money and had disappeared. After a short chase the local authorities caught the alleged thief, and after recovering the stolen money, locked him up for safekeeping.

This little incident is only an example of what is going on every day and it behooves each one of us to stop and think whether we are traveling with the right kind of friends. Most anyone will stand by you when you have money, but a true friend will not steal it from you, but instead will advise you to deposit your surplus money in our bank and play safe by carrying a check book. Let us be your friend and explain to you the advantages of a checking account.

Better be safe than sorry.

RANDOM RECOLLECTIONS

Gathering Hickory Nuts in the Good Old School Days.

The advent of the month of October of each year was usually hailed with delight by the average small boy of our town when the writer was one of them, for the latter part of the month brought about the time for the gathering of hickory nuts, walnuts and hazel nuts, of which there were in those years a goodly quantity in nearly all of the woods and groves in the vicinity of the village, the owners of which were usually of a generous disposition and allowed the boys to gather nuts to their hearts' content. But things have changed in the past forty years, and places where hickory nuts, walnuts and hazel nuts now can be found in large quantities are few and far between.

One of the best and most popular places for nut gathering was Crane's woods (afterward called Webb's woods) on the avenue road just east of the corporation line, (and which extended clear up to the Crane family residence) a portion of which is now occupied by the Catholic cemetery. All of this patch of woods has disappeared, and in its place are now fertile fields and gardens. Some of the other popular places in the good old times were the grove of the late James W. Ross, east of town, on the banks of the river, a short distance from where the street car barn now is. Wygant's woods, a little further east, which I believe, is now a part of the estate of the late F. B. Shoemaker, of Toledo; Bruce's woods, between the river and the C. H. & D. R. R., and which still contains a great deal of timber; the woods adjoining Maple Grove, then owned by the Kindervaters; the woods of the late Conrad Brossia, near Bates' Station; the woods owned by William Brossia, and the Liningers, and the Limmers; and some of the favorite places to the south of those already mentioned were Grueshaber's, Stauffer's, Seiling's and Simmons', and then over near the old Fremont pike, Parks', Lintner's and several others, the names of the owners of which have escaped my memory.

There were quite a number of good places for nut gathering adjoining the old McCutchenville road, the owners of which were never known by me, and which were more frequently visited by the boys residing on the southern edge of the town. Over in a southeasterly direction from the town some of the favorite places were the woods and groves owned by Frank, Leonard and George Eckel, and by the late George Lober. Still further out on the "old plank road," as the Findlay plank road was popularly called in those days, some of the good places for hickory nuts and hazel nuts were the woods of the late C. C. Hum and Alex. Bruce.

To the west of the town some of the best nut-gathering places were the dense woods of the late Foster Pratt, also Keeler's grove, and still nearer the town, Hayes' grove, on the Fort Meigs property, which contained some fine large walnut trees, the crops from which young Jimmie Hayes—"Cappy," we called him—on several occasions shared with the writer. A good place for hickory nuts was Hayes' woods—the wooded tract between Fort Meigs proper and the C. H. & D. R. R. to the south. Eddie Fitzgerald and myself secured all we could carry away, from one tree in a few minutes, in these woods on one occasion.

Also there was a grand place to gather hickory nuts right within the corporate limits of the village, and that was in the old cemetery on Indiana avenue, a short distance west of the old jail building. There were a number of fine large hickory trees of the shell-bark
